SEATTLE---The large lock at the Hiram M. Chittenden Locks in Ballard will be closed for maintenance work from 12:01 a.m., Nov. 20, to 4 p.m., Dec. 3, according to the Seattle District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, which operates the Locks.

The small lock will remain open for boat traffic throughout this period. The small lock can normally accommodate vessels 100 feet in length with 25 foot beams.

The scheduled repairs to the large lock are part of an annual general maintenance program.
