

Northwest Interpretive Association (NWIA) Gift Shop

Our gift shop is located inside the visitor center and offers a unique collection of books, postcards, suveniors, and other items to make your visit memorable. The Northwest Interpretive Association (NWIA) operates the store and returns proceeds to visitors in the form of aid to the Ship Canal's educational and interpretive programs.

NWIA is a non-profit organization that supports and promotes interpretive services at over 50 National Park Service, U.S. Forest Service, Bureau of Land Management, and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers facilities in the Pacific Northwest. Association memberships are available and entitle holders to special discounts at any of their over 80 gift shop locations. Daily summer hours are May through September from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Off-season hours are October through April from Thursday through Monday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
