

Historic Structures III: Planning & Programming

Short Title: HIST STRUCTURES III 105/CEMP-EA Course Length: 24 Hours

PURPOSE. To apply information learned in Historic Structures I to the development of typical historic preservation projects, using Federal preservation regulations, the Secretary of the Interior's Standards, and the consultation process with State Historic Preservation Officers (SHPO). The overall goal is to plan and program historic structures renovation and maintenance projects at both the installation level and civil works project locations. DESCRIPTION. The course will focus on the role of project development team members. Roles will include program/project management, cost engineering, design, functional user, maintenance and repair, fire protection, force protection, sustainable design, cultural resources, and SHPO consultation. The format will be case studies pursued as a three-day planning charette shepherding the development planning and programming of a historic preservation project. PREREQUISITES.

Nominees include Occupational Series: 0020,0023,0025,0028,0170,0193, 1301,0342,0408,0800; and 1008,1170,1171,1173,1176,1301,1640,1910,1960.

Persons are expected to have one-year of experience in the above-specified roles or series. A basic knowledge of historic preservation laws such as, Introduction to Section 106, or Historic Structures Maintenance and Repair are recommended. LOCATION: Session I - Atlanta, GA March 2004 Session II - Norfolk, VA June 2004 TUITION: $890

Point of Contact: Lauren McCroskey Phone: 206-764-3538 Email: Lauren.L.McCroskey@usace.army.mil